Concierge Recommends

Palm Beach, Florida

The pool area at Four Seasons Resort Palm Beach as evening descends

We asked Jimena Feldman, Concierge at Four Seasons Resort Palm Beach, to gather the savviest sightseeing suggestions she could find—not just her own but also those of other local connoisseurs, including some she works with every day at the Resort. Palm Beach exudes sophistication and a rich heritage created through the generations by some of America’s leading families. The town also has many surprises, from a thriving arts scene, exceptional shopping venues and outdoor recreation.

The shopping is glorious in Palm Beach, and notably along Worth Avenue, a brilliant cluster of the finest fetching favourites. Acquisitions are ahead in:

Cutting-Edge Cuisine

Cafe L'Europe has been appealing to the discerning palates of Palm Beachers for 30 years. This continental restaurant is completely charming and has three unique dining spaces. The bistro area with its French glass doors, mirrored surfaces and a piano bar is lively and entertaining. The main room is the perfect spot for an intimate dinner for two, and the stunning wine room can accommodate a party of forty.

A Night To Remember

After opening in 1941, Ta-boo restaurant drew the likes of John F. Kennedy, Frank Sinatra, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, as well as other celebrities, becoming the hottest spot on the island of Palm Beach. Located in the heart of Worth Avenue, Ta-boo is the perfect place to take a break from shopping and to enjoy a see-and-be-seen atmosphere. It also offers an intimate bar and roll-away roof that allows dining under the stars.

In The Swing

You'd like to squeeze in a round of golf, but you don't want to spend four to six hours chasing par. Solution: Tee it up for two-and-a-half to three hours at Palm Beach Par-3, an 18-hole gem with six holes set flush against the Atlantic. Arguably the best short course in the United States, this velvety track was recently renovated by PGA champ and Palm Beach resident Raymond Floyd. The new clubhouse is a winner, too. Quaff a cold one on the wrap-around terrace overlooking the ocean.

Haute Deals

Everybody loves bargain shopping—even Palm Beach blue bloods. Business is booming at the region's numerous consignment shops, where "momentarily used" designer apparel and wares go for a fraction of the prices on Worth Avenue. Check out the sweet deals on high-end labels—from Armani to Valentino—at Classic Collections Palm Beach, then browse the savings on everything from cuff links to tuxes at Fiore Fine Men's Wear Consignment. More great buys await at Deja Vu (large selection of Chanel), Off Worth (estate jewellery), Avenue Revue (ball gowns), Groovy Palm Beach Vintage (Pucci and Lilly Pulitzer), Flower Child (couture for kids) and The Church Mouse (antiques, china and collectibles as well as clothing).

Glide in the 'Glades

You and yours can thrill to the natural wonders of Florida's fabled Everglades via an airboat tour—a high-speed safari through cypress forests and wildlife habitats. Marvel at flamingos and alligators while an expert guide explains South Florida's unique ecosystem. Ask the Concierge to recommend airboat operators that can provide private, small group tours.

Follow This Path

Drink in the sensational scenery along the Lake Trail, a nine-mile bicycle and walking path that winds between Palm Beach's storied mansions and the sparkling Intracoastal Waterway. Wryly referred to as the "Trail of Conspicuous Consumption," this path also acquaints travellers with native vegetation, including buttonwood, Christmas palms and gumbo-limbo trees. Rent bicycles, including high-end models, at Palm Beach Bicycle Trail Shop, where you'll get a map of the trail with points-of-interest.

Close Shave

For men who crave some serious pampering, the Willow Room at the Resort's newly renovated Spa is just the ticket. This gents-only retreat cossets with a six-step traditional hot-towel shave with classic straight-edge razor and the finest products for skin care. While indulging in the ultimate shave—in an old-fashioned barbershop chair—you can catch your favourite programs on the 42-inch flat-screen TV.

Visit A Mansion

Not just any mansion, but Whitehall—the breathtaking Italian Renaissance-inspired palace built by railroad tycoon Henry Morrison Flagler. Florida's Gilded Age is alive and well at this landmark, now known as the Henry Morrison Flagler Museum. Tours spotlight many of the mansion's more than 70 rooms, including the incredible baroque ceiling in the Grand Hall. Afternoon tea in the opulent, sun-filled Café des Beaux-Arts is a delight.

Don't forget to lunch at the infamous "Taboo" restaurant on Worth Avenue. I love this restaurant because of the quaintness, however for the best views and delish cuisine, check out Charley's Crab with fabulous ocean views. It's so Palm Beach, dawling...

For the most amazing breakfast in the area—John G's on Lake Worth Beach is the local fav spot! Be ready to wait in a line on one of the most beautiful beaches ... but more than that...the amazing Almond French Toast!!!!!! Oh I love to go back every year just for that!
