PASSION FOR FASHION

It's not possible to think of February without thinking of Valentine's Day. What other holiday can conjure up a passionate memory, wish, or secret smile like this one? Darlings, it's all about LOVE—that which you give, and that which you receive!

At Classic Collections, we are blessed to work at something we love to do every day! All of us here have a true 'Passion for Fashion' and we get to meet with new consignors and customers daily. Many of you have become friends and we always look forward to your visits and greatly appreciate the neighbors, family and other people that you refer to us. We deeply appreciate your business, loyalty and friendship.

It's SO much fun for us to be there when someone finds that perfect dress...when a long-sought after handbag is "discovered"...when shoes you've always admired slip on like you're Cinderella! There's nothing more rewarding than this for the Classic Collections team!

We LOVE this business, and we have YOU to thank for it!

The WOW Factor!

Classic Collections Featured on "wowOwow.com"

About a year ago, the website www.wowowow.com was launched offering discussion and photo essays on everything from current news, politics, the economy, entertainment, cultural events, fashion and just about anything else that intelligent and sophisticated women would find interesting. Think television's "The View", on a website – but far better, more intelligent and diverse.

This entertaining and provocative website is aimed at affluent women over 40 and was founded by celebrities Leslie Stahl, Candice Bergen, Marlo Thomas, Lily Tomlin and Whoopi Goldberg, "The Women on the Web".

Classic Collections was featured on January 20, 2009 in an article on the growth and popularity of consignment shops. We were fortunate to be showcased in a wonderful "Photo Essay" that accompanied this interesting and timely discussion. Check it out at www.wowowow.com and let us know what you think. Yowza Wowza!

PALM BEACH'S PREMIER LUXURY CONSIGNMENT SHOP

Charity Corner

Classic Collections is pleased to announce that we had the pleasure of working with the terrific staff of Palm Beach Society Magazine in the publication of the just released Palm Beach Pet Society Book.

Under the editorial direction of Christine Tate, the creative skills of Melissa Posey and the superb photography of Sarah Brown, Classic Collections produced a feature article entitled "Fashionistas", showcasing many of our dog friends photographed amid the stylish, luxury accessories from our boutique. We're not sure the dogs had a lot of fun (there was some jealousy over a lovely pair of Chanel sandals), but we sure did! Certainly, this 15 page photo essay depicting "reTAIL" therapy is a special, fabulous treat that we hope will make you smile!

While the Westminster Dog Show certainly is the gold standard for dog lovers, we like to think that first place goes to Palm Beach Pet Society's beautiful coffee-table book that features the 'best of the best' of our local furry friends. More importantly, the proceeds of the sale of this $20 gem go directly to various Palm Beach pet charities such as Save-A-Pet and others. So, come on in and browse through our sumptuous selection of designer clothes, shoes and accessories and pick up your copy of Palm Beach Pet Society! Don't forget, your purchase is "Going to the Dogs"!

PURSES GALORE!

Finding it difficult to rationalize spending thousands of dollars on that designer purse that you just HAVE to have? The one you have lusted for, planned your wardrobe around, and dreamed about? Well, not to worry! Classic Collections is overflowing with luxury designer purses, evening bags, satchels and carry-alls. Currently we have Hermes, Chanel, Louis Vuitton, Ungaro, Judith Leiber, Bottega Veneta, Nancy Gonzalez, Valentino, Lambertson-Truex, Ferragamo, Barry Kieselstein-Cord, Gucci and many other well-known top designers.

As word spreads, our purse inventory is growing daily—so come on in and see what we have to offer. But hurry! Don't forget, a purse fits almost everyone and many of these classic, elegant, beautifully made creations are snatched up as soon as they arrive.

By the way, that's something to think about if you own some of these beauties and no longer use them. Consigning is the ultimate way to recycle; it gives a new owner great "found a treasure" pleasure and pays you cash for something that was just sitting in your closet! Talk about a win-win!

Give us a call if you have some new or "gently worn" purses—we'll be happy to make an appointment to pick them up—or any other quality merchandise you no longer want or use!
